

NATIONAL CHAMPIONS CLASH AT LONG BEACH OCTOBER 4 – 8

America's best are coming to Southern California for the annual National Championships, USLBA's most prestigious event. And, it's all open to the public.

Top bowlers representing the United States Lawn Bowls Association's seven regional divisions will vie for the National Championship October 4 thru 8, at the Long Beach Lawn Bowling Club greens. Each division is sending it's best singles player and pairs team to the annual contest, with the Southwest Division (Southern California) qualifying two sets of competitors.

The National Championships (formally known as the U.S. Championships) brings together winners of each Division's "playdowns"—competitions within regional territories. The seven USLBA divisions are (basically): Central (Milwaukee, Chicago, etc.) Northeast (New England states), Northwest (Oregon, Washington), Pacific Inter-Mountain (Northern California), Southwest (Southern California), South Central (Arizona), Southeast (Florida).

Southern Californian men who qualified to take the mat in Long Beach are: Singles: Phil Salt (San Diego) and Michael Siddall (Newport Harbor); Pairs: Gary Fischer (Newport Harbor) & Howard Harris (San Diego) and Tony Baer (Newport Harbor) & Ian Ho (Laguna Beach).

Siddall, a three-time Singles champion dating back to 1993, will be defending his 2008 Singles title, while Baer is looking to repeat last year's Pairs victory.

Southwest women rolling for gold are: Singles: Rosa Gandara (Hermosa Beach), and Cecile Langevin (Long Beach); Pairs: Kottia Spangler (Riverside) & Anne Nunes (Newport Harbor) and Patricia Cronshaw (Santa Barbara) & Carrie Fosatti (Santa Ana).

Gandara has dominated the national singles scene, having captured three of the last four National Singles championships, including last year's. The Nunes-Spangler tandem is looking for its third National Pairs title, having won the 2002 and 2006 championships. Nunes also won the 2003 Singles title, while Spangler reached the Singles winners circle in 1985, and won additional Pairs victories in 1995 and 1999. Langevin will be gunning for her second National Singles crown.

Opening Ceremonies are Sunday October 4th at 12:30 pm. They will be followed by the kick-off matches at 2 p.m. Thereafter, two games are scheduled daily, Monday through Wednesday, at 9 a.m. and 1:30 p.m.

Every match is open to the public.

Social events during the Nationals include a BBQ on Sunday evening (10/4) and the Golden Bias party Tuesday evening (10/6). The Awards banquet will be held on Wednesday, October 7th at the Golden Sails Hotel in Long Beach.

Tickets for these events can be obtained from Patricia Gonzales: patlea@social.rr.com

Volunteers are needed as markers and flippers for all games. If you are interested in being a marker and/or scoreboard "flipper" for any of these matches, please contact Shirley Price at (562) 866-0236 or ShirleySPrice@aol.com

BOWLING'S CAPED CRUSADER!

Some big-time kudos for Newport Harbor LBC's Charlie Herbert and Ivan Hyland, who teamed with veteran Seattle champion Richard Broad at the Atlantic Bowls Championships played in Johannesburg this past spring.

According to David Rhys Jones of International Bowls Magazine, "Charlie, whom they "nicknamed 'Clark Kent' and 'Superman' for his heroics on the green, and his American colleagues produced some outstanding bowls to qualify for the quarter-finals stage of the Triples. In true 'the cavalry are coming' fashion, they beat Scotland in the last section game and then took South Africa to an extra end, where bowl play kept a full green of spectators riveted to their vantage points.

"Charlie failed by the narrowest of margins to overcome Bobby Donnelly, whose use of 'kryponite' bowls obviously foiled 'Superman' in achieving his ultimate glory.

"The upbeat approach of the Americans, and particularly that of Charlie and Richard, is paying dividends in the States.

"They informed me that their clubs...(put) the emphasis on fun and enjoyment, particularly when it comes to advertising for new members. The extensive use of websites, regular marketing and a full programme (sic) of social activities within the club is resulting in a growing and happy membership.

"Nothing staid or cautious either in their marketing. Advertises for 'Men with BigBowls' and 'Bowlbusters' for the ladies league show their determination to shake off the traditionally conservative side of bowls.

"All power to their elbow and no one does the hype and promotion better than the USA. And no one does the optimism and enthusiasm better than USA bowls 'Superman', Charlie Herbert.

"His one big ambition is to build an indoor bowling stadium in Las Vegas. Who would bet against him achieving his aim."

DEAR DR. GOODWICK.....

RX for more consistent excellence

Dear Dr. Doctor,

Recently, I had a really bad day bowling. The more I tried, the worse things got. Do you have a prescription for how to fix a "bad day," or at least how to keep it from becoming worse?

Woe Is Me

Dear Woe,

Attitude is the foundation of everything in bowls. In life too. Any given day there are hundreds of issues that contend for control of your focus and attention.

At the green you have a long list of items that compete for your attention and your good attitude. Many novices wonder if today will be a good day or a bad day before they polish their bowls.

Even the best players know there's a mysterious weirdness that can unexpectedly pop its head, making today one of those days when you couldn't drop a bowl on your foot if you tried. We've all had 'em. You just "can't find your weight, or hit your marks." For some of us, those days come more often than for others.

A champion bowler told me this had happened to him in a recent tournament. He was stunned by his inability to deliver a decent bowl. "But," he said, "I didn't let my teammates know." He kept his struggling and frustration to himself, neither mentioning, analyzing, or excusing his poor performance as a discussion item. As a consequence his teammates, who were free to focus on their own deliveries, continued to bowl well and they squeaked out a one-point victory.

Said the champ bowler: "Keeping my frustration to myself during the first game, when I couldn't do any better than two yards long followed by two yards short, was the key to our success. I didn't bring down my teammates by complaining...either verbally or with my body language." They obviously couldn't help but notice I wasn't bowling up to par. But it never became an issue, and they stayed focused on their own deliveries.

I thought about years ago when my wife and I would play the front end in a triples match. If wifey was having a bad bowling day, soon I was too. And vice-versa. Negativity is infectious. And the intensity is greater among folks who have a special relationship with each other. You don't have to be married. Friends and teammates are naturally concerned for each other. When your friend is having problems that make him/her angry or frustrated, you're going to pick up some of their frustration. The price is paid by the reduction of your focus and good attitude.

Bottom line prescription: Keep your snivels to yourself. Don't infect your partners with anything but positive thoughts and a mental game that's focused toward achieving every bowler's goal: consistent excellence.

CITY OF HOPE TRIPLES NETS $3,360

The 39th annual City of Hope Mixed Triples was held June 6th at the Santa Anita Bowling Green Club in Arcadia. 22 teams, 66 bowlers, participated in the annual charity event.

All entry fees and donations collected for this event were presented to Brenda Warner of the "Together for Hope Auxiliary" of the City of Hope. Tournament Director Gayle Plunkett handed Mrs. Warner a bundle of checks totaling $3,360, to aid in the search for the cure of cancer at their facility in Duarte.

Gene and Gayle Plunkett provided the food, with some help from the Ralph's Market in Hastings Ranch Shopping Complex.

A TALE OF TWO TOURNAMENTS

The annual Cary-MacDonald Doubles tournament, like the yearly Murray-Allison Singles tourney, are more than just heady competitions. Top finishers in these events accrue "points" towards qualifying for the U.S. National Team.

THE CARYS AND THE MCDONALDS

2009 Cary-McDonald Pairs winners (l-r): Cary-Zvika Hadar and Mert Isaacman. McDonald-Joe Siegman and Neville Sacks

Dr. Raymond Cary was president, in 1945, of the Southern California Association, pre-cursor of the men's Southwest Division. Drs. Cary and Robert MacDonald, members of the Recreation Park (now Long Beach) LBC, are credited as founders of the Coast League.

In 1965, William Allison (Holmby Park) and Frank Murray (Glendale) donated trophies for the annual singles tournament named in their honor. Murray was Southern California Association president in 1958, and Allison SCA president in 1967.

MAP INTERNATIONAL OCT. 11 - 17

The "MAP" Is the only international tournament hosted by the United States that is sanctioned by the World Bowls Federation. This year it will again be held at the Newport Beach and Laguna Beach clubs, October 11 thru 17.

The tournament is named for the late Michael Ashton-Phillips, men's Southwest Division president 1992-93, and National Team member.

As Americans, we would like to live up to our reputation of providing the best hospitality around. With this in mind, organizers are asking for your help. Instead of asking for a donation outright, they are offering something in return.

They are raffling new Henselit bowls at the MAP closing ceremony. (You do not have to be there to win but are welcome to attend). Single raffle ticket costs only $20. However, if you contribute $50 you will get THREE tickets. And for every 50 tickets sold, they will add another set of bowls to give away. WHAT A DEAL!

This is a great opportunity to help maintain the "American Standard" while supporting "Lawn Bowls". Plus for every ticket purchased, you have no less than a 1 in 50 chance of winning a new set of bowls.

Purchase your tickets by clicking on the link below or mail your check to: MAP International Raffle, 17 Buckthorn, Irvine CA 92604.
